Construction Technology

Instructors: Robert Encinio

Location: Construction Technology room 104 – morning session

Career Cluster: Architecture and Construction

Program Overview:

> The Construction Technology Program consists of a one-year curriculum designed to help students achieve the skills and knowledge necessary to enter the construction industry. The focus will be on green building techniques