One firal issue discusses was that of online compensation for courses. There is pressure from the Executive Director regarding Zuni campus. The Online course policy from 2009 attempted to to the Extended University, which would allow us to access 000 to prepare new online courses (money typically goes through departments). Cynthia Arazco, at Exted University, stated that they want to bring us under their auspices which means they would decide who qualifies to teach online. There is caption of Extended University and main campushat branch campuses are poaching students because we don't charge the extended University and courses The Dean mentioned that there is $10,000 available to get faculty ready to teach Zoom or on the courses The Dean mentioned that there is $10,000 available to get faculty ready to teach Zoom or on the old 2009 policy was not implemented because faculty worried about interness the losing students and didn't want Extended University controlling our 100 and 200 level courses Dean Roberts is more interested in Zoom technology than online courses and wanted a committee of address Zoom and online courses taught by UNMG faculty Faculty are far to busy for yet another committee and simply do not have time to commit to extra committee work at this time on Roberts agreed to take up this is the simple of take up this is the simple of the course of the cou
